Findorff's Eric Wynn is New AGC of Greater Milwaukee President

MADISON – Findorff is excited to announce Eric Wynn, Director of Project Management and General Manager of Southeast Wisconsin, has been elected the 2016-2017 Board President for the Associated General Contractors (AGC) of Greater Milwaukee. The 2015-2016 Board President was Rick Schmidt, President and Chief Executive of C.G. Schmidt.

Having served as an elected board member for the AGC of Greater Milwaukee since 2013, Eric has proudly held several leadership positions for the Organization, such as Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. In addition, Eric has been an integral member of the Carpenters Negotiating Committee and has recently accepted the position as Chair of the Operators Labor Negotiations Committee.

Eric's recent appointment to Board President not only exemplifies his commitment to the community and construction industry, but also Findorff's history with the Organization. Dave Beck-Engel, Findorff President, is a member of the Board of Directors and a past President for AGC of Wisconsin. Moreover, the Company's Chairman, Rich Lynch, is also a member of the Board of Directors and a past President for AGC of Wisconsin.

"It is an honor to serve as the 2016 AGC of Greater Milwaukee President. In the past 20 years, the construction industry has provided me many opportunities and allowed me to develop both great professional and personal relationships with my peers," mentioned Eric. "I look forward to continually working with such individuals to help lead exciting efforts. I believe in the future of the construction industry as well as what it has to offer young professionals and future generations of our workforce."
